The growth of the intellect is spontaneous in every expansion. The mind that grows could not predict the times, the means, the mood of that spontaneity.

Mrs. Carolyn Northcutt,

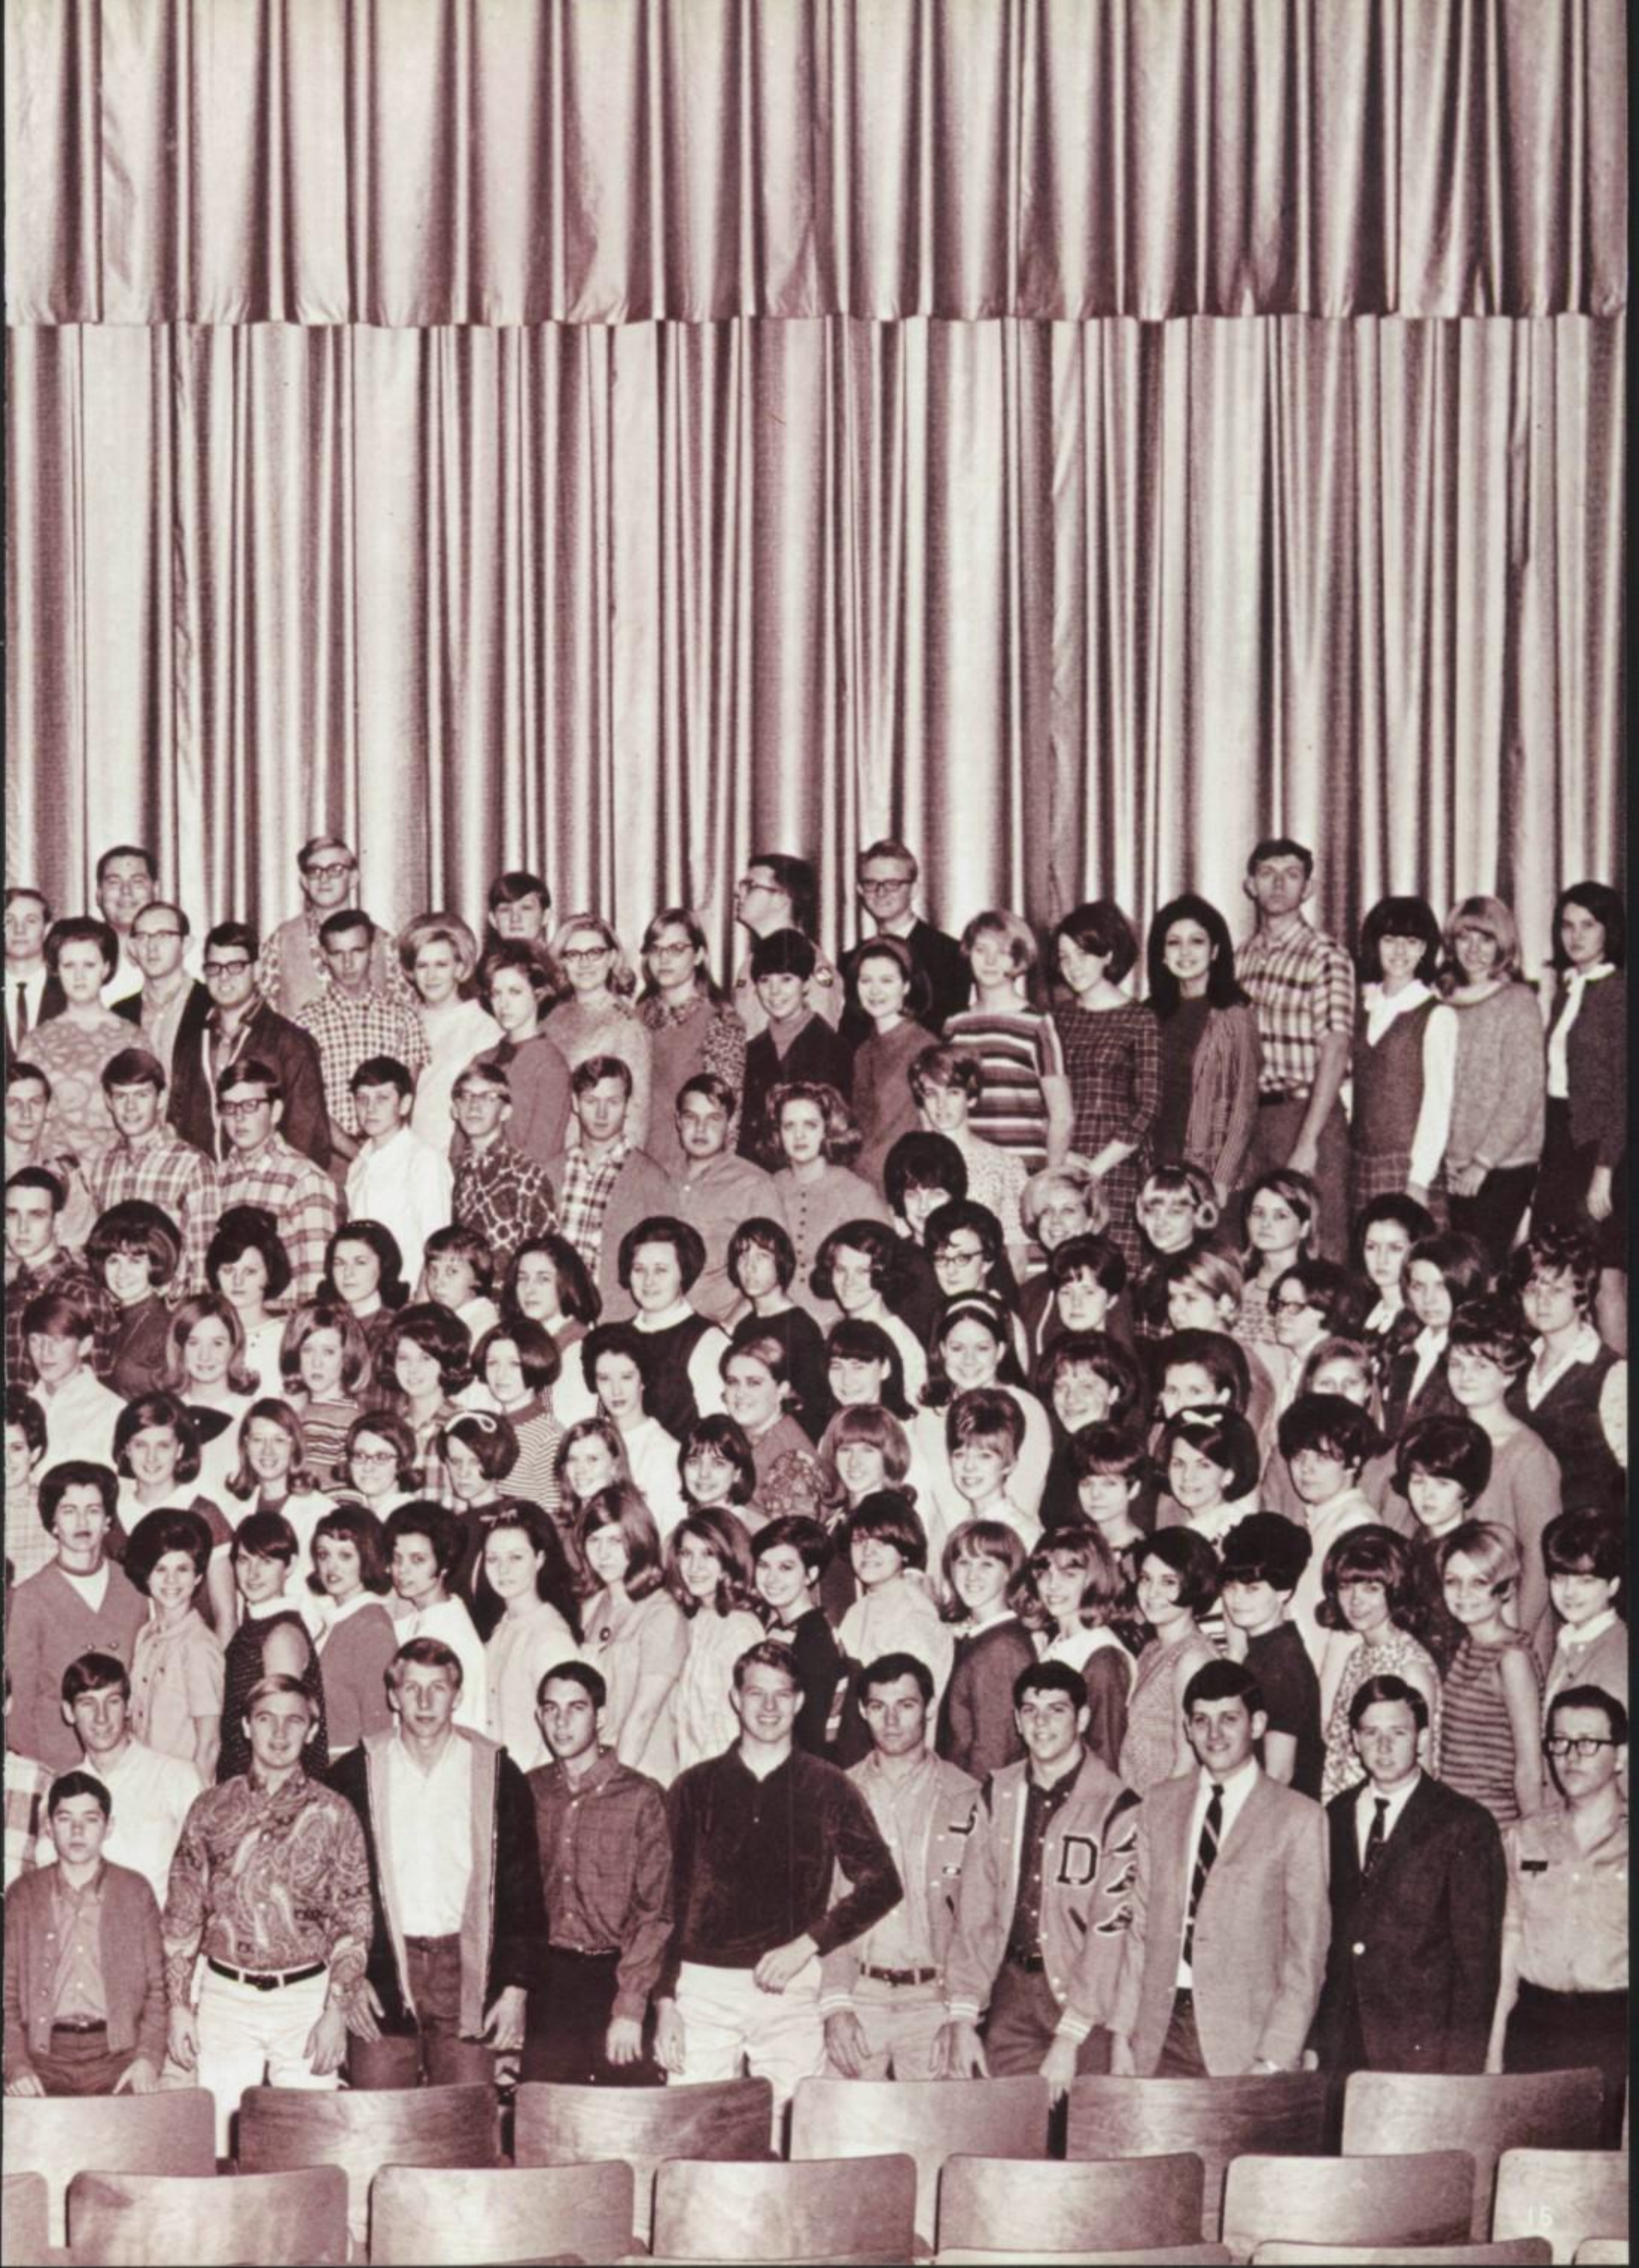

There are numerous adjectives that could be used to describe her, yet all in some way are incapable of expressing exactly what we would like to convey. She has a unique drive and spirit which is very contagious by only glancing at her. Her quick smile and warm personality will always be remembered by the first seniors, for she was their sponsor.

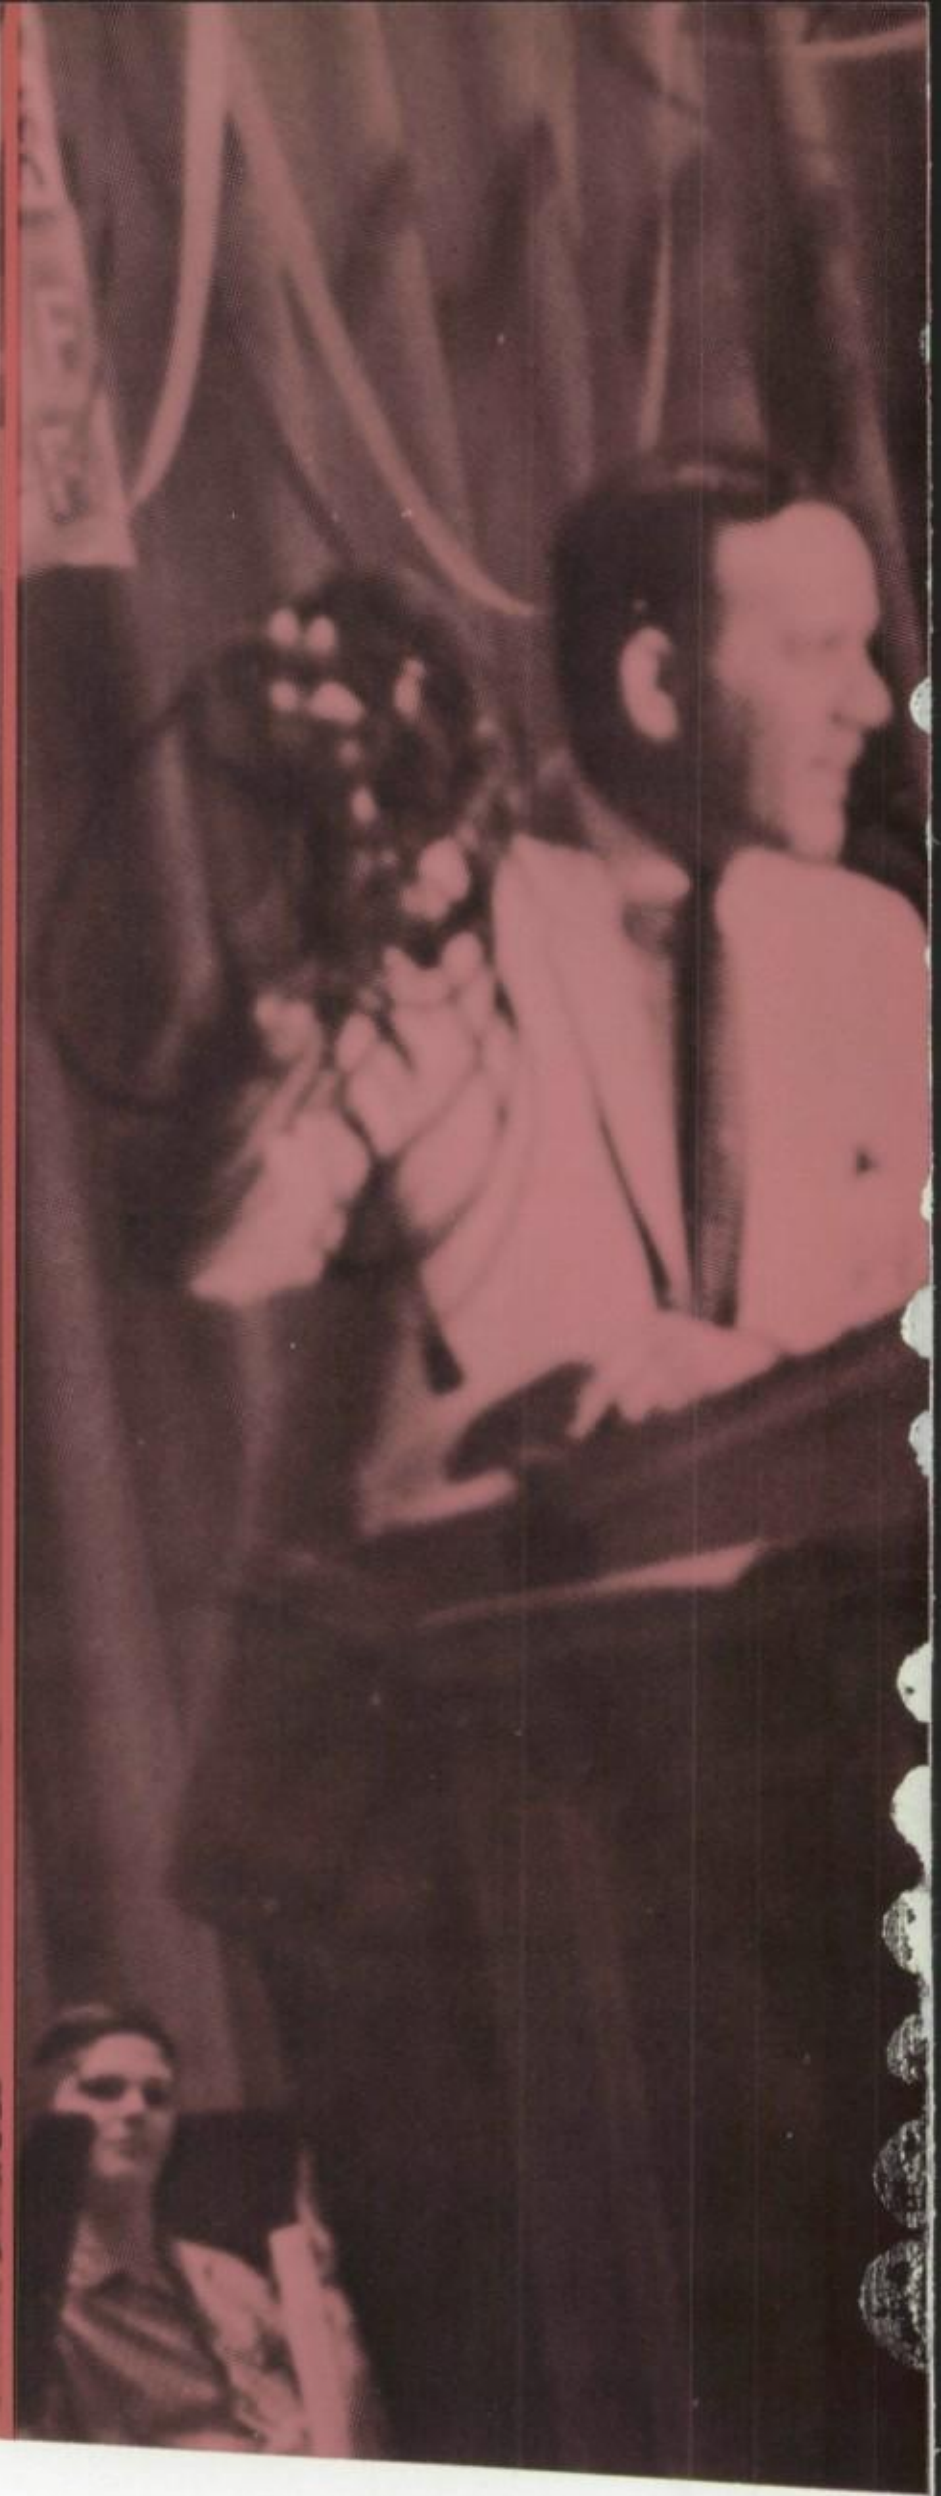

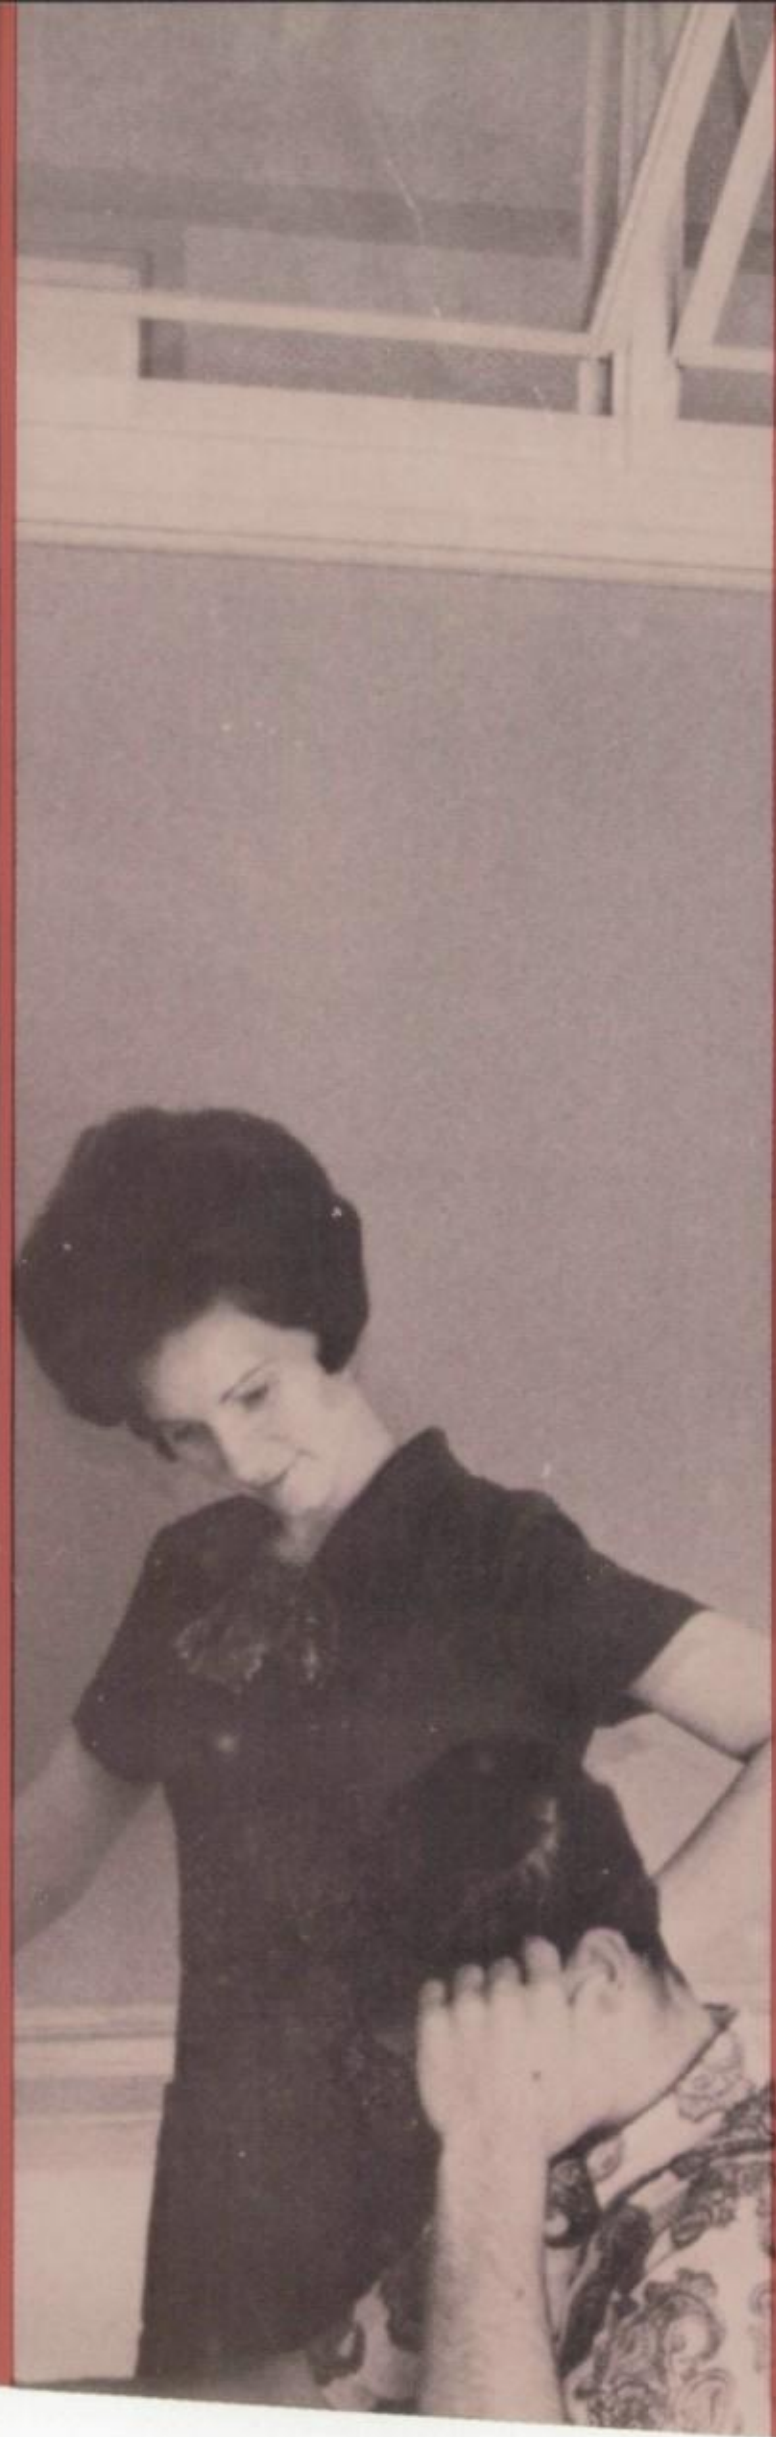

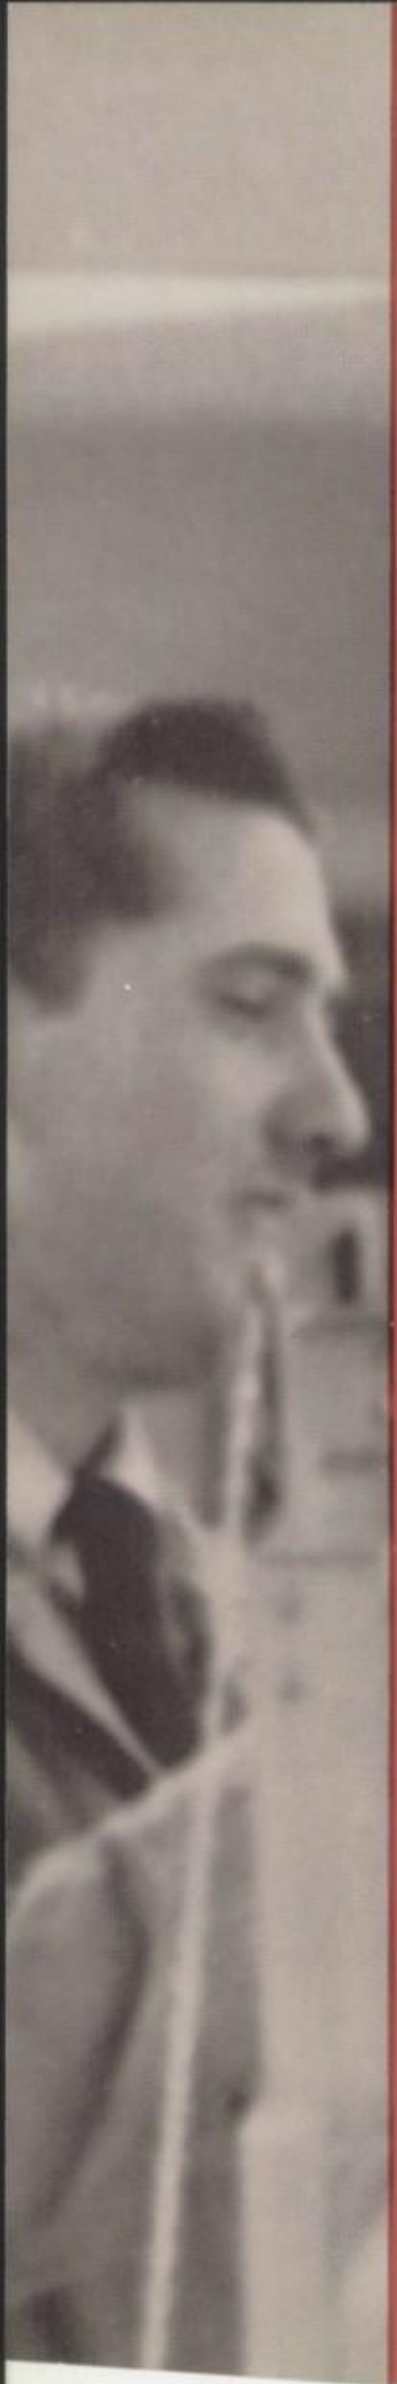

She has been an active part of Carter's short past, yet we are sure she will play an even more active part in Carter's future.

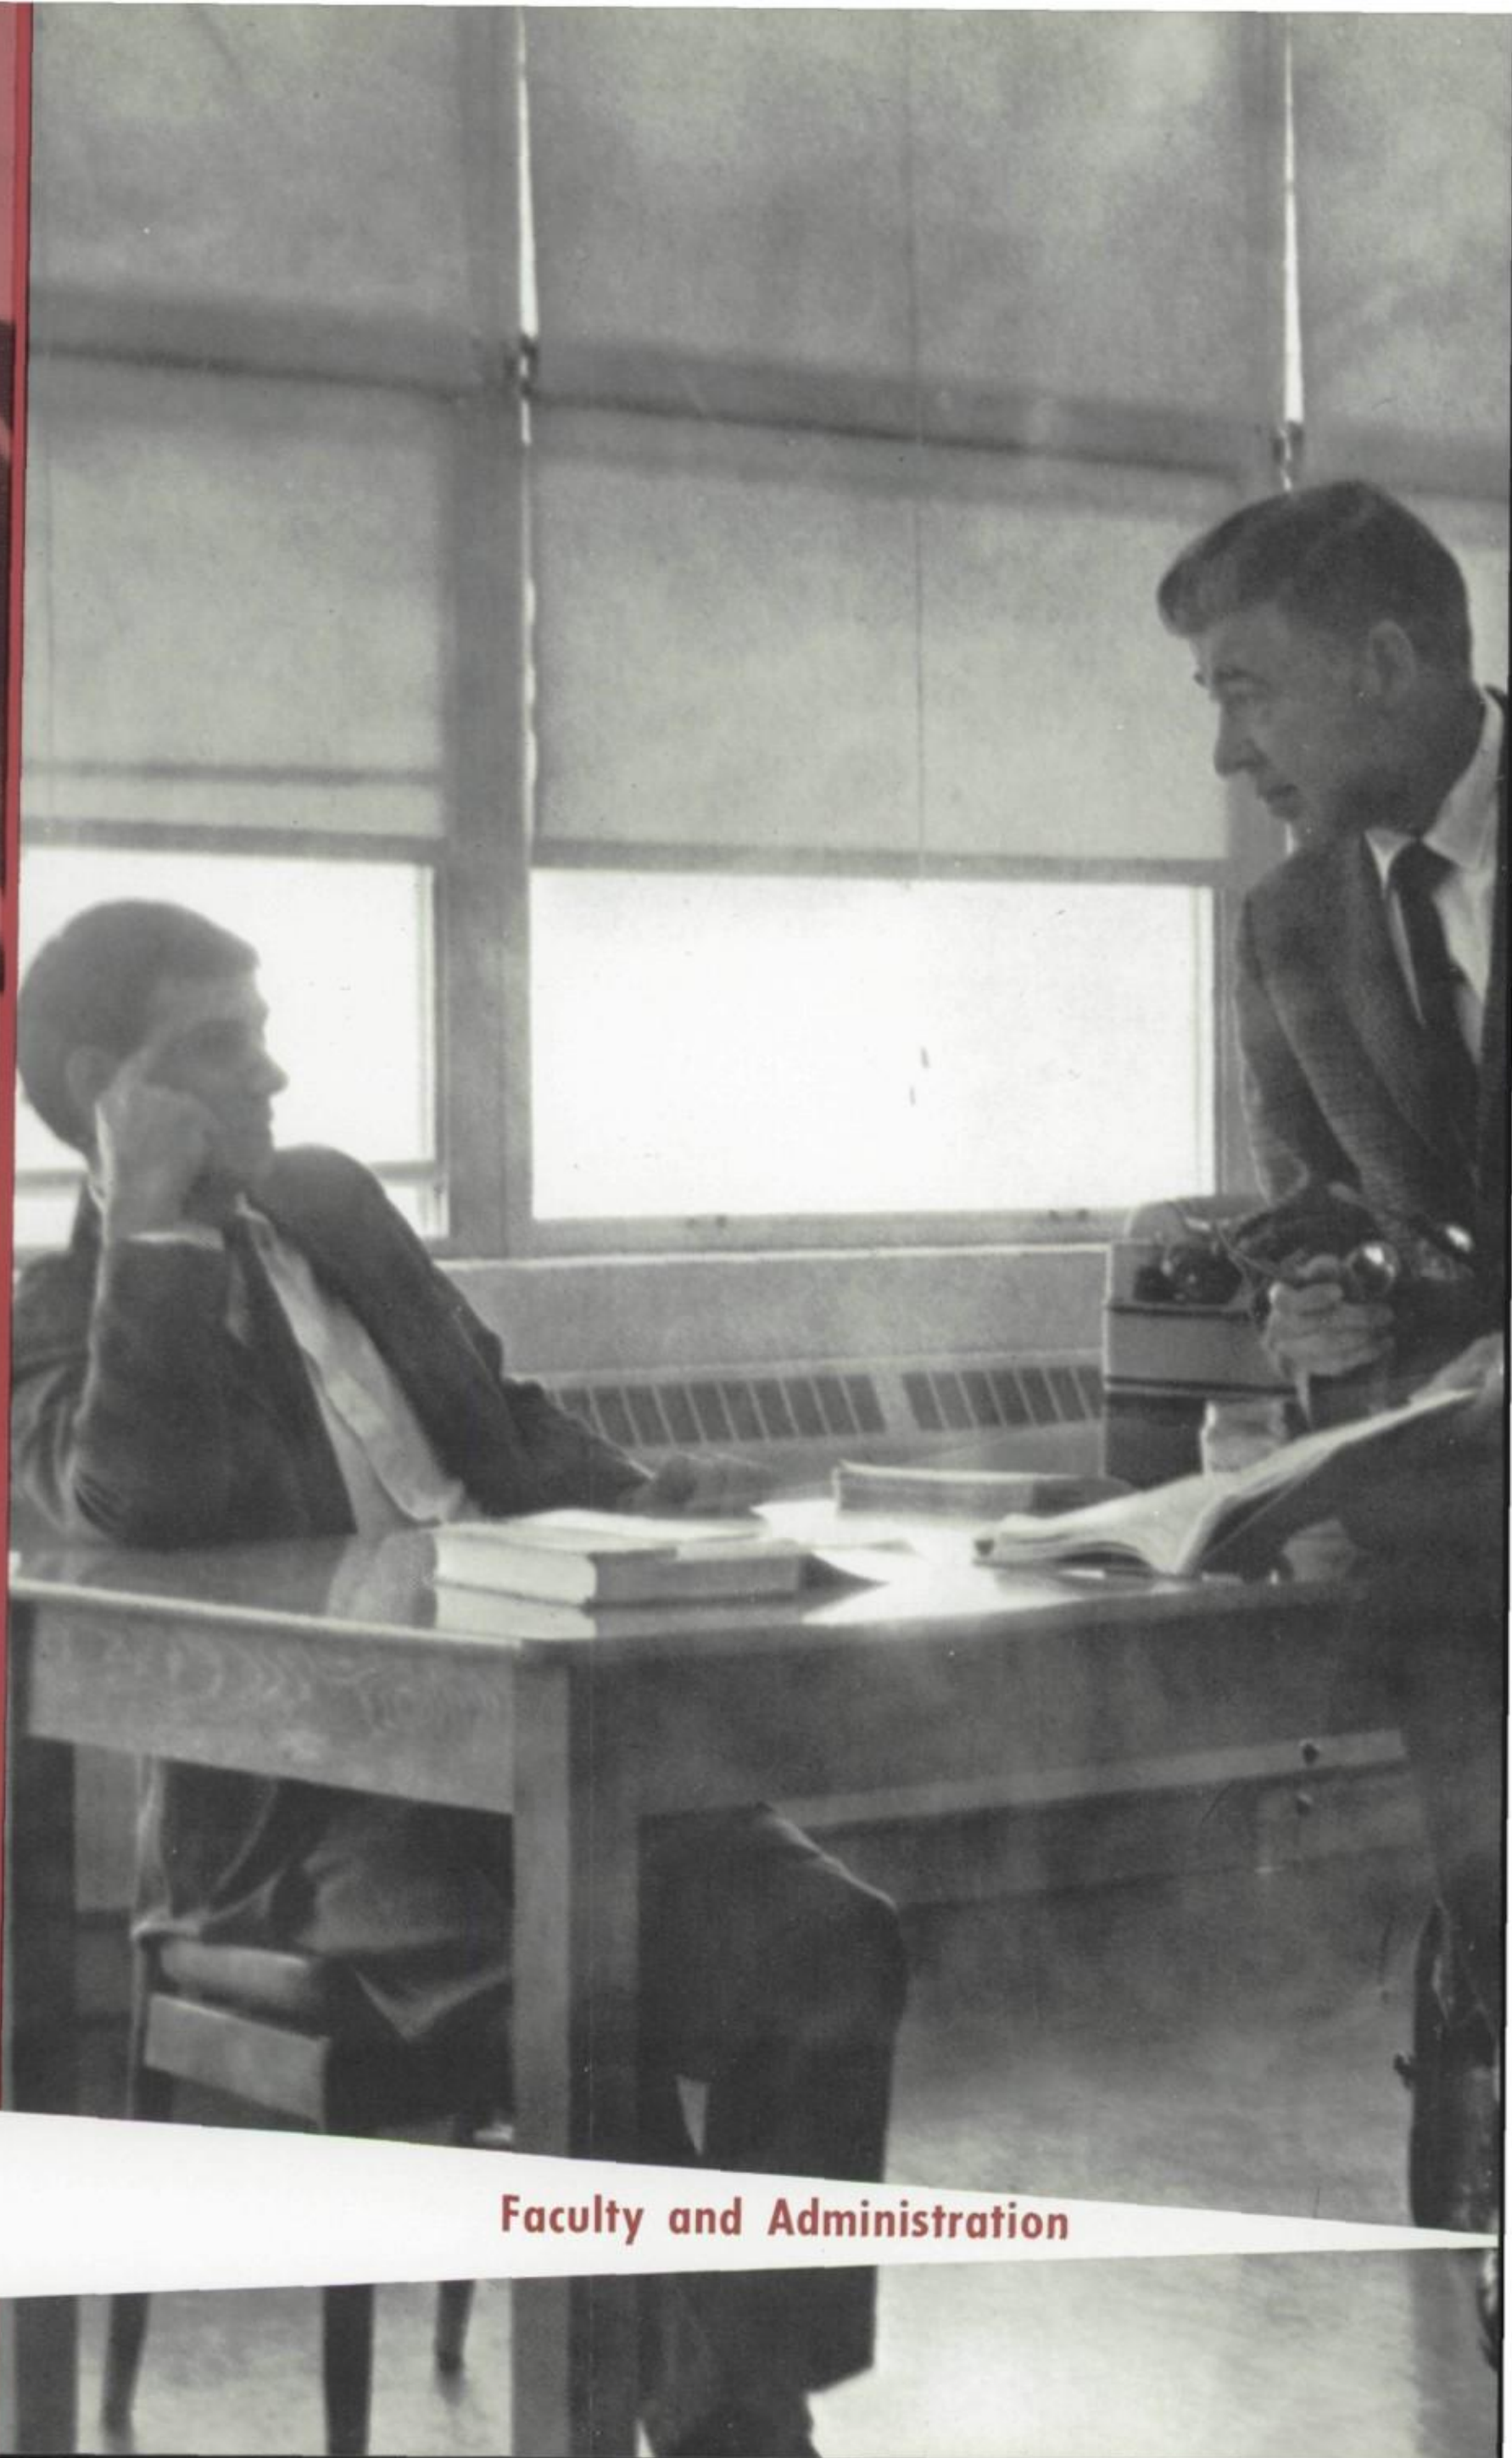

To Mrs. Carolyn Northcutt and the first Senior Class, we dedicate the 1968 Round-Up.

Faculty and Administration

BOARD OF EDUCATION . . .

An effective and capable administration is necessary to achieve an outstanding public school system. Such an administration directs the Dallas Public School System.

The wisdom and knowledge of the directors are combined to produce the ultimate in well-educated young adults in these young years — the prologue of their lives.

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

Marvin H. Berkeley, Jerry D. Wheat, John Plath Green, J. Willard Grogg, Lee A. McShan, Jr., President, Dr. W. T. White, Supt., Percy E. Luecke, Jr., M.D., Vice-President, Emmett J. Conrad, M.D., James E. Joy, Mrs. Henri L. Bromberg, Jr.

Dr. W. T. White . . .

A man of distinction and

Who's Who 1968

GARY McDOW

Basketball — Captain
 Senior Class President
 National Honor Society — Vice Pres.
 Key Club
 Student Council

Gary might be the one person that could possibly fulfill the image as the ideal student leader. A scholar, an athlete and an out-going personality all contribute to this image.

As a small token of gratitude, we recognize Gary McDow.

SCARLETT FOSTER

National Honor Society
 Bible Award
 National Forensic League
 National Thespians

Success is a natural asset in the character of Scarlett. Her sincere congeniality and willingness to learn have won the confidence of all.

For her many accomplishments, we recognize Scarlett Foster.

MERTIS ANDERSON

Editor in Chief — Round-Up
Thebes and Thesis
National Thespians
"Cinderella"

Mertis undoubtedly has the admiration of every fellow student and instructor alike.

As Editor of the Round-Up she displays the knowledge and service necessary for a person in such a prominent role.

In appreciation for the services she has performed, we recognize Mertis Anderson.

STEVE CRAIG

Cheerleader
Student Council — Vice Pres.
Swim Club
Thebes and Thesis
Science Club

Steve's life has become a kaleidoscope of activity; whether it be cheering at Carter pep assemblies or receiving an invitation to cheer with the Dallas Cowboys, Steve is always willing to give of himself for the need of others.

For his true school spirit, we recognize Steve Craig.

MARJORIE LEROY

Debate Club
Thebes and Thesis
Concert Choir
Latin Club
Band
National Merit Scholarship Finalist

Being a National Merit Scholarship finalist, Marjorie has proven that she is worthy of her position among the scholastically elite. Her life has become a complicated computer of activity at Carter.

For her outstanding ability as a student, we recognize Marjorie Leroy.

PAM BRADLEY

Head Cheerleader
Student Council — Treasurer
Round-Up Staff
Football Queen Nominee
Best All Around Senior Girl
Teen Council

The spirit of Carter High School; the kind that never dies. Pam Bradley has been willing to accept responsibility as a student and as a citizen. Carter has been built by students like Pam.

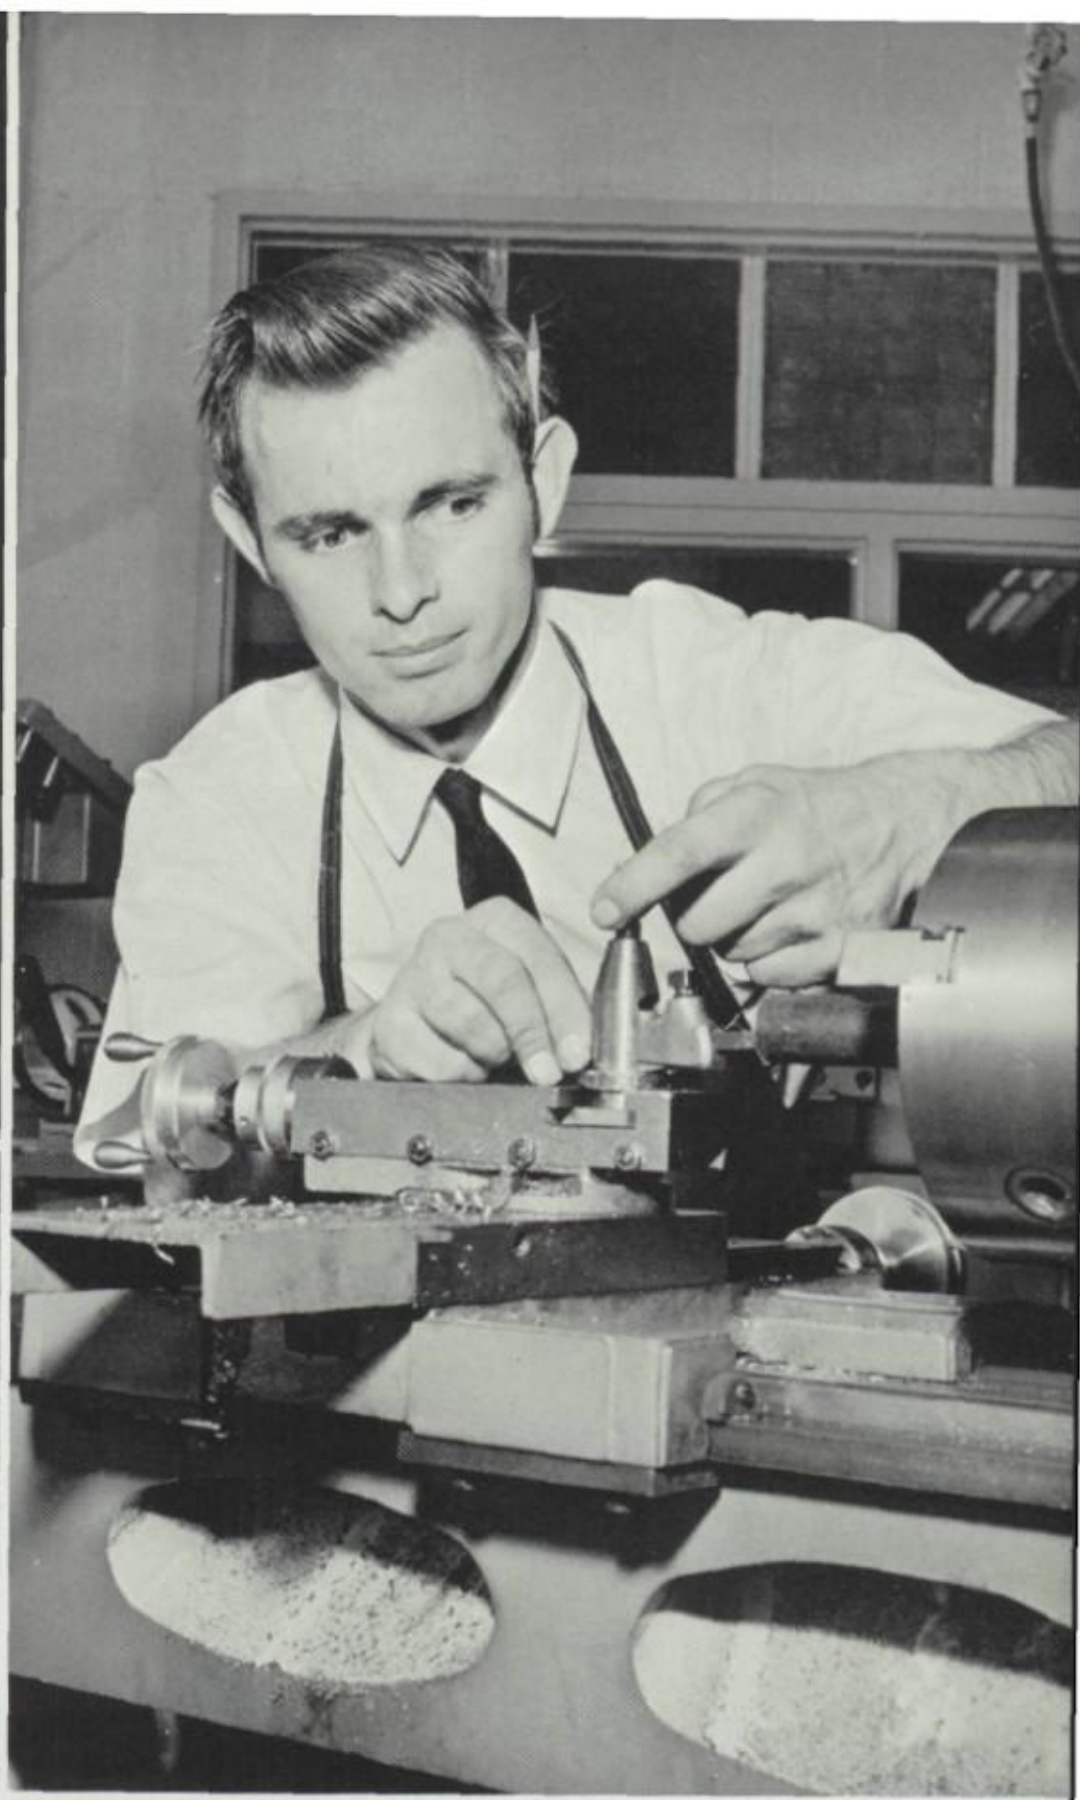

Truly an asset to our school we recognize Pam Bradley.

JAMES MOULTON

Industrial Arts
Projectionist

An outstanding achievement has never been overlooked by society, and James Moulton is no exception. His contributions of support are surely results of loyalty and respect for his school.

For his contributions we recognize James Moulton.

CHARLES NIX

Football Captain
Student Council President
Key Club
Track

Leadership and versatility head the list of adjectives describing the character of Charlie. Being selected as President of the Student Body reaffirms ones faith in him. In spite of the fact that he was also chosen as Most Popular, his humility has not been altered.

For his leadership, we recognize Charlie Nix.

SHERRI WESTERLAGE

National Honor Society
Interscholastic League
Senior Girl Most Likely to Succeed
Round-Up Staff
Student Council

Experience is the most contributing factor to Sherri's success as a pianist on the stage, not to mention her scholastic ability.

Whether it be a state champion typing contest or accompanying the Concert Choir, her demand for perfection outshines all others.

For her outstanding image as the most influential citizen of the future, we recognize Sherri Westerlage.

CINDY DYKES

Calico — Captain
Student Council — Vice Pres.
Most Popular Senior Girl
D.A.R. Award

A refined character and a keen sense of values are the primary constituents of a unique personality, Cindy Dykes. The esteem of her fellow students was confirmed when they elected her Most Popular Senior Girl.

In all due respect, we recognize Cindy Dykes.

SHERRY RAYNER

National Thespians
 Junior Classical League
 Biology Award
 Concert Choir
 Critics and Writers
 Musicals

Exhaustion is a word which is excluded from the vocabulary of Sherry Rayner. Her support for the school has been expressed through her outstanding talent as an actress interwoven with scholastic ability.

For her support to Carter, we recognize Sherry Rayner.

CINDY BROWN

Co-editor — Round-Up
 Concert Choir
 "Cinderella"
 "The Music Man"

A quick smile and energy to spare are synonymous with the name Cindy Brown. Her rare imagination and outstanding ideas add a certain air of significance to her position as co-editor of the Round-Up.

For her various contributions, we recognize Cindy Brown.

MARTHA DAVALOZ

Sound Technician
Art Club — President
Spurs — Vice President
Los Vaqueros

Being a person of a unique strength and perception, Martha has applied a feminine touch to sound production. This does not lessen, but ascertains the quality for which she strives.

Truly being one of a genuine talent, we recognize Martha Davaloz.

BEVERLY STANLEY

Co-Editor, Round-Up
FBLA
Guides Club
Chorus

Dependability and quality in all her endeavors is only a mild interpretation of the image of Beverly Stanley. She has served diligently as Co-Editor of the Round-Up.

Having served loyally, we recognize Beverly Stanley.

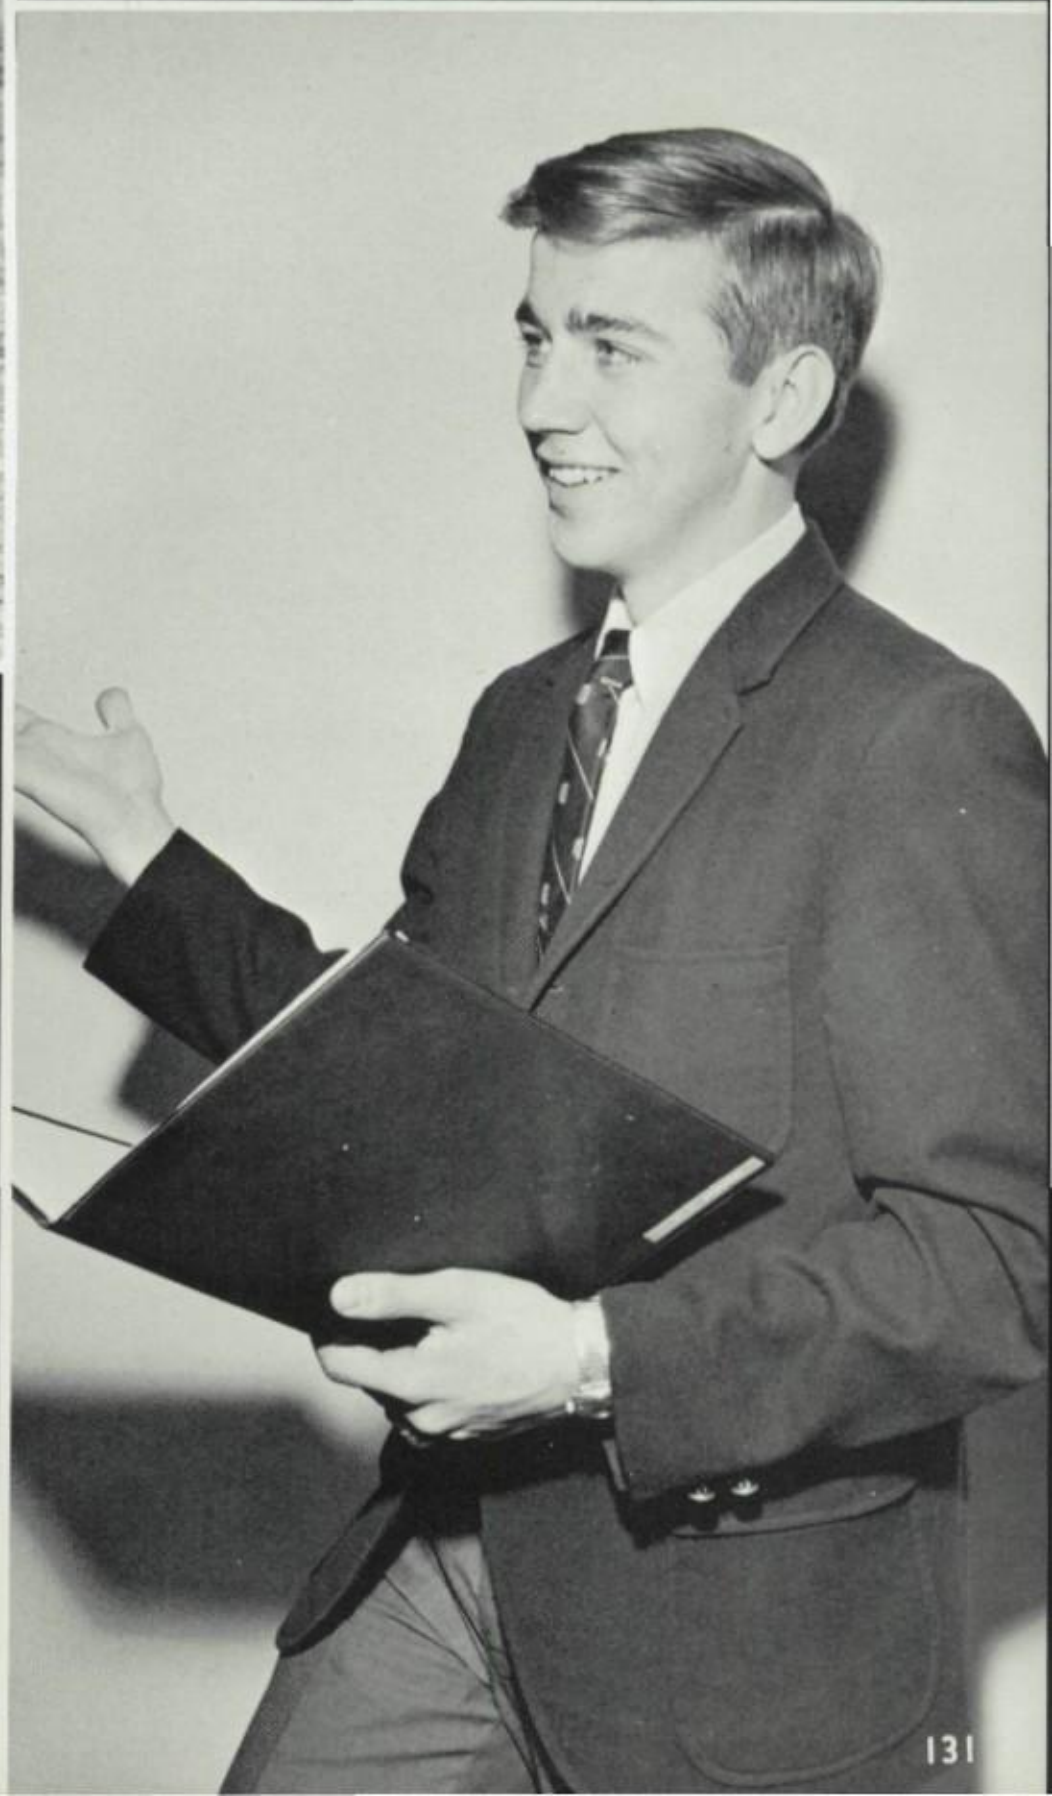

JIMMY AUBREY

Football Trainer
Key Club
Track
Student Council

Easy-going and unassuming can only be a small contribution to the description of the character of Jimmy Aubrey. His spirited enthusiasm has become contagious to all his associates.

In view of his school support, we recognize Jimmy Aubrey.

CLAY REED

National Thespians — President
Concert Choir
Senior Play
Critics and Writers
Musicals

Acting and singing go hand in hand in the character of Clay Reed. His supporting roles bring great esteem to his profile.

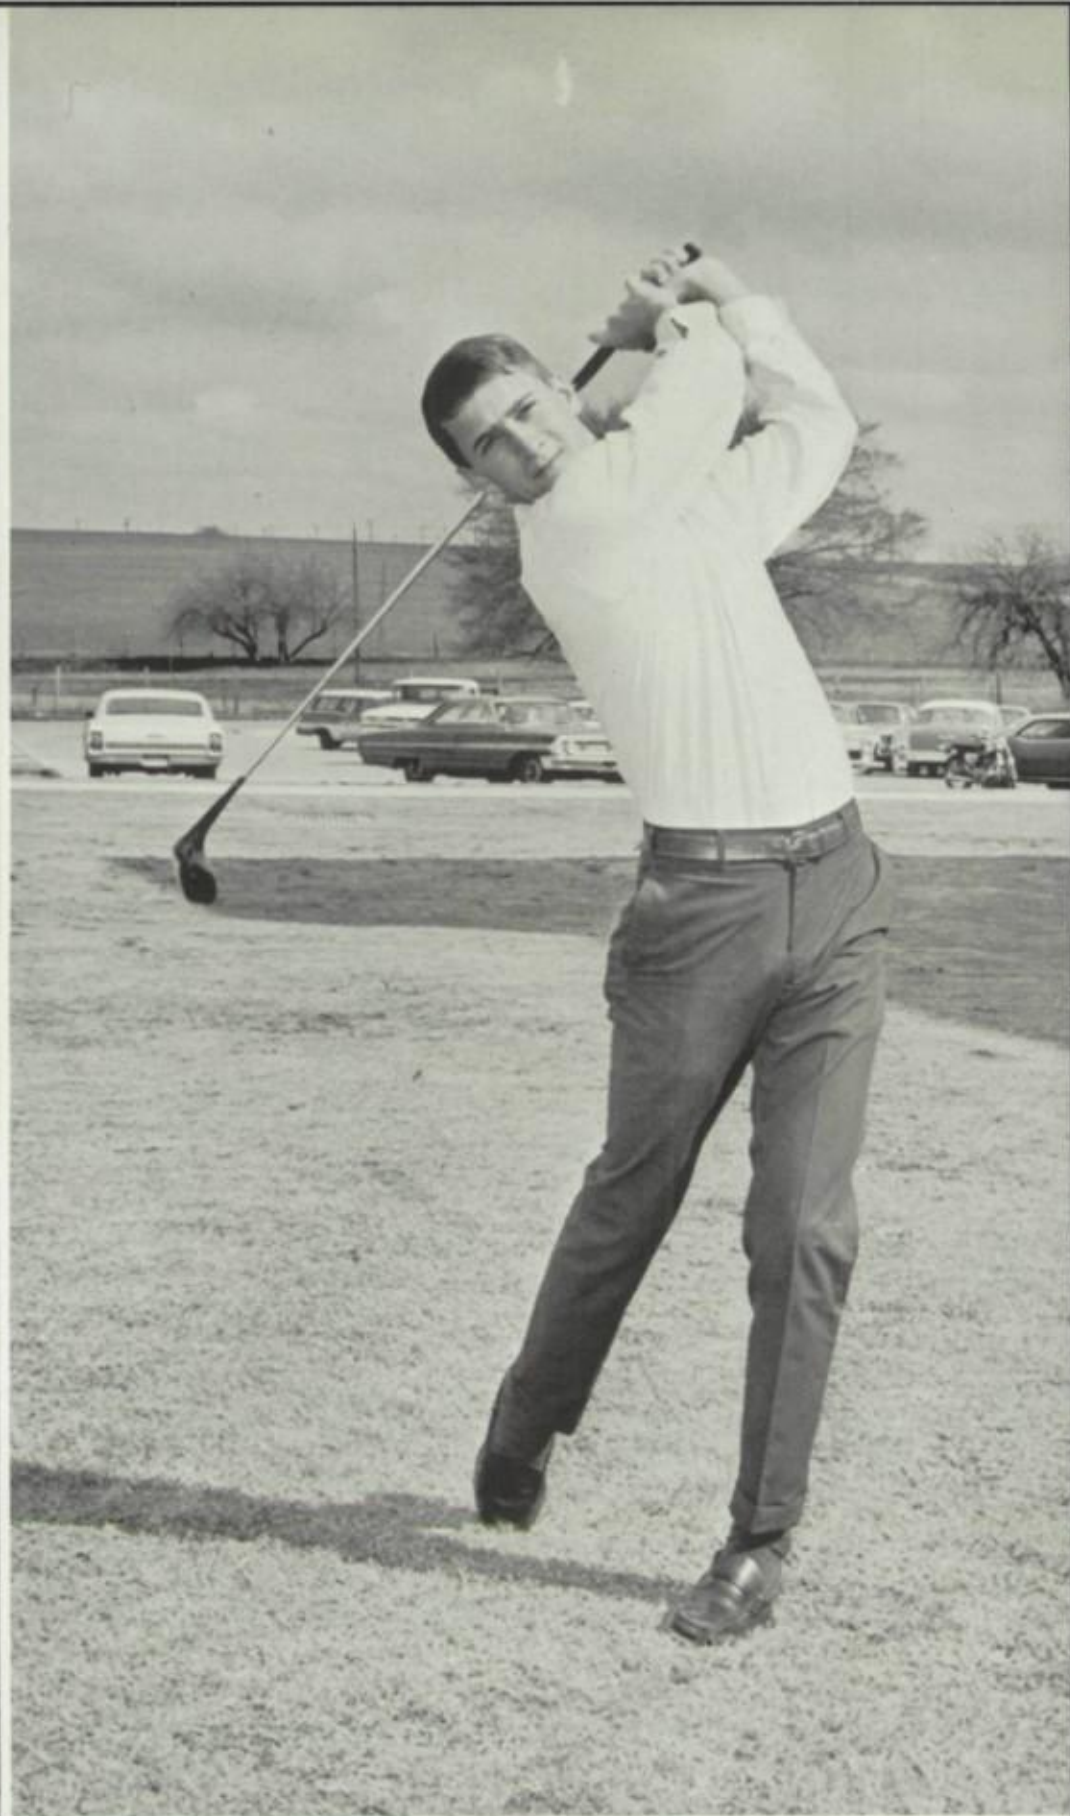

For his various contributions to the school, we recognize Clay Reed.

TERRY BENCH

Golf Team
Junior Traffic Safety

Intellectual superiority intermingled with an outstanding character are elements composing the image of Terry Bench. Truly a student to be envied by all, he has helped build a foundation for tradition at Carter.

As an outstanding student at Carter, we recognize Terry Bench.

VICKI DENNIS

National Merit Scholarship
Debate Club
Math Club
Bible Award

A great intellectual capacity interwoven with a genuine concern for others contribute to the respect that Vicki has earned of her fellow student. Having received a Letter of Commendation from the National Merit Foundation, Vicki proves she is scholastically elite.

In all due respect, we recognize Vicki Dennis.

SCOTT LONG

National Forensic League — President
Thebes and Thesis — President
Senior Play
Musicals

Scott Long has justifiably been called "Mr. Debate." Such a title surely is one that brings honor and prestige to the bearer. Excelling scholastically as well, Scott has brought many pride-bearing honors to Carter.

In gratitude of his efforts, we recognize Scott Long.

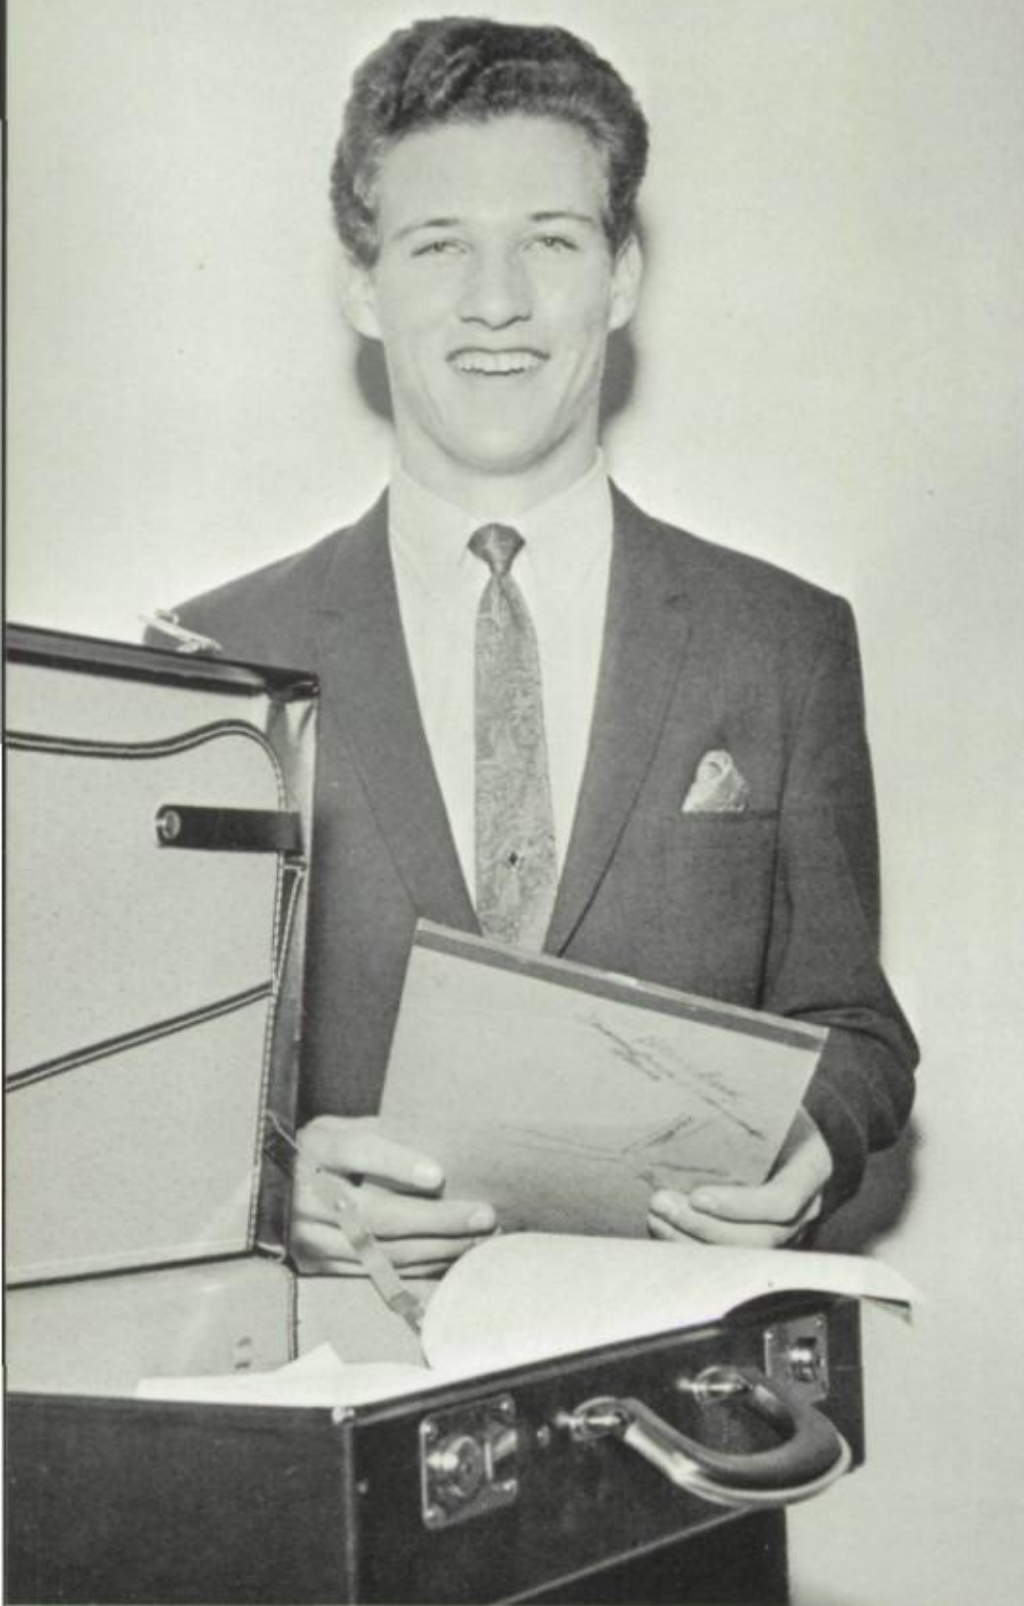

RAY GROUNDS

Football
Baseball
Key Club
Student Council

Finding a means to support his school is no problem for Ray Grounds. A letterman in football and an active member of the Student Council, what more proof could one ask? Ray has not been overlooked by his contemporaries, as he was selected Most Handsome Senior Boy.

For his outstanding support, we recognize Ray Grounds.

STEVE FARRAR

National Forensic League — Vice Pres.
Thebes and Thesis

Key Club

Citizenship Seminar Representative

A distinguished character about school, Steve faces many challenges. His persuasive speaking ability is characterized in his dynamic personality.

For his many accomplishments, we recognize Steve Farrar.

SHARI INGLE

Outstanding Art Club Award

Art Production Manager

National Thespians

Senior Play

Debate Club

Art Club — Vice-President

Musicals

Artistic creativity is a natural asset in the character of Shari Ingle. Whether it be designing the costumes for a musical or painting the set, her talent assumes a leisurely air. Her devotion to perfection erases all conception of time.

For abilities unlimited, we recognize Shari Ingle.

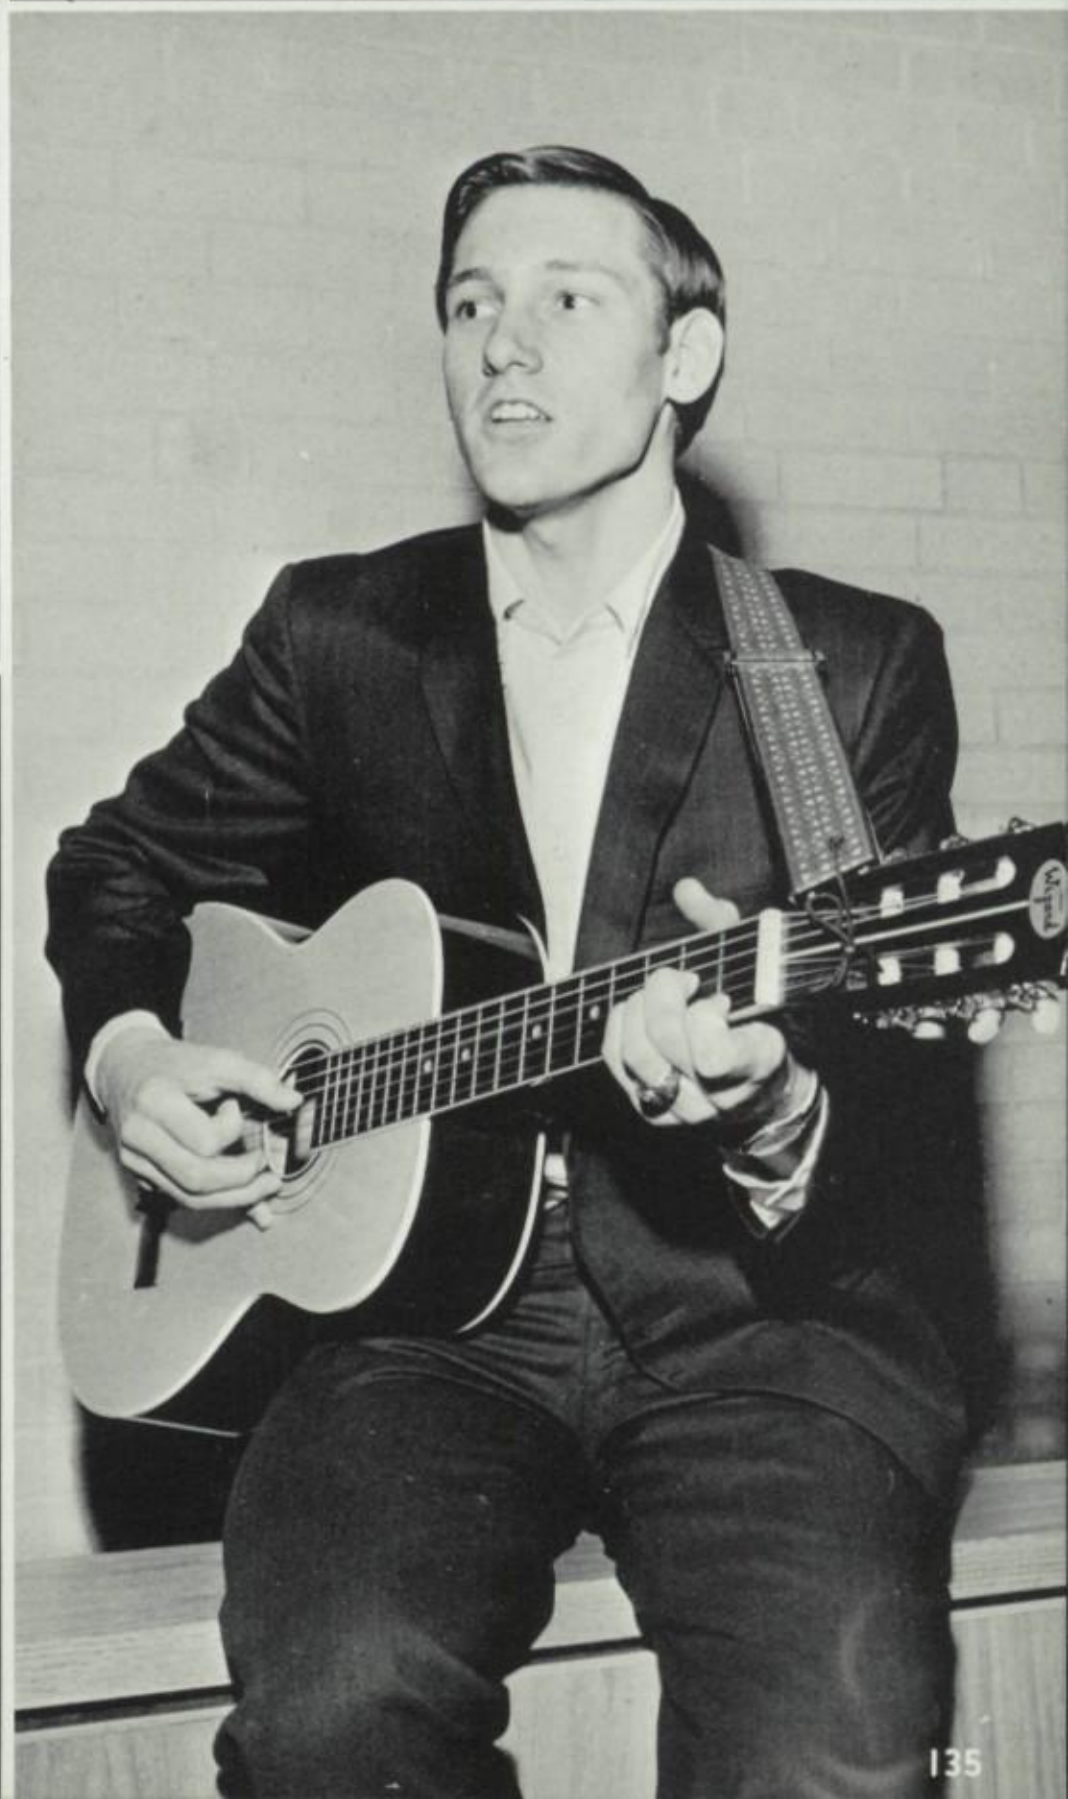

NATHAN PENN

Student Council
Drill Team Commander
Wrangler Staff
Key Club

It is not surprising, in view of his accomplishments, that Nathan is one of the most influential characters about Carter. His willingness to accept the responsibilities as a student and a citizen is that beyond all others.

For his various accomplishments, we recognize Nathan Penn.

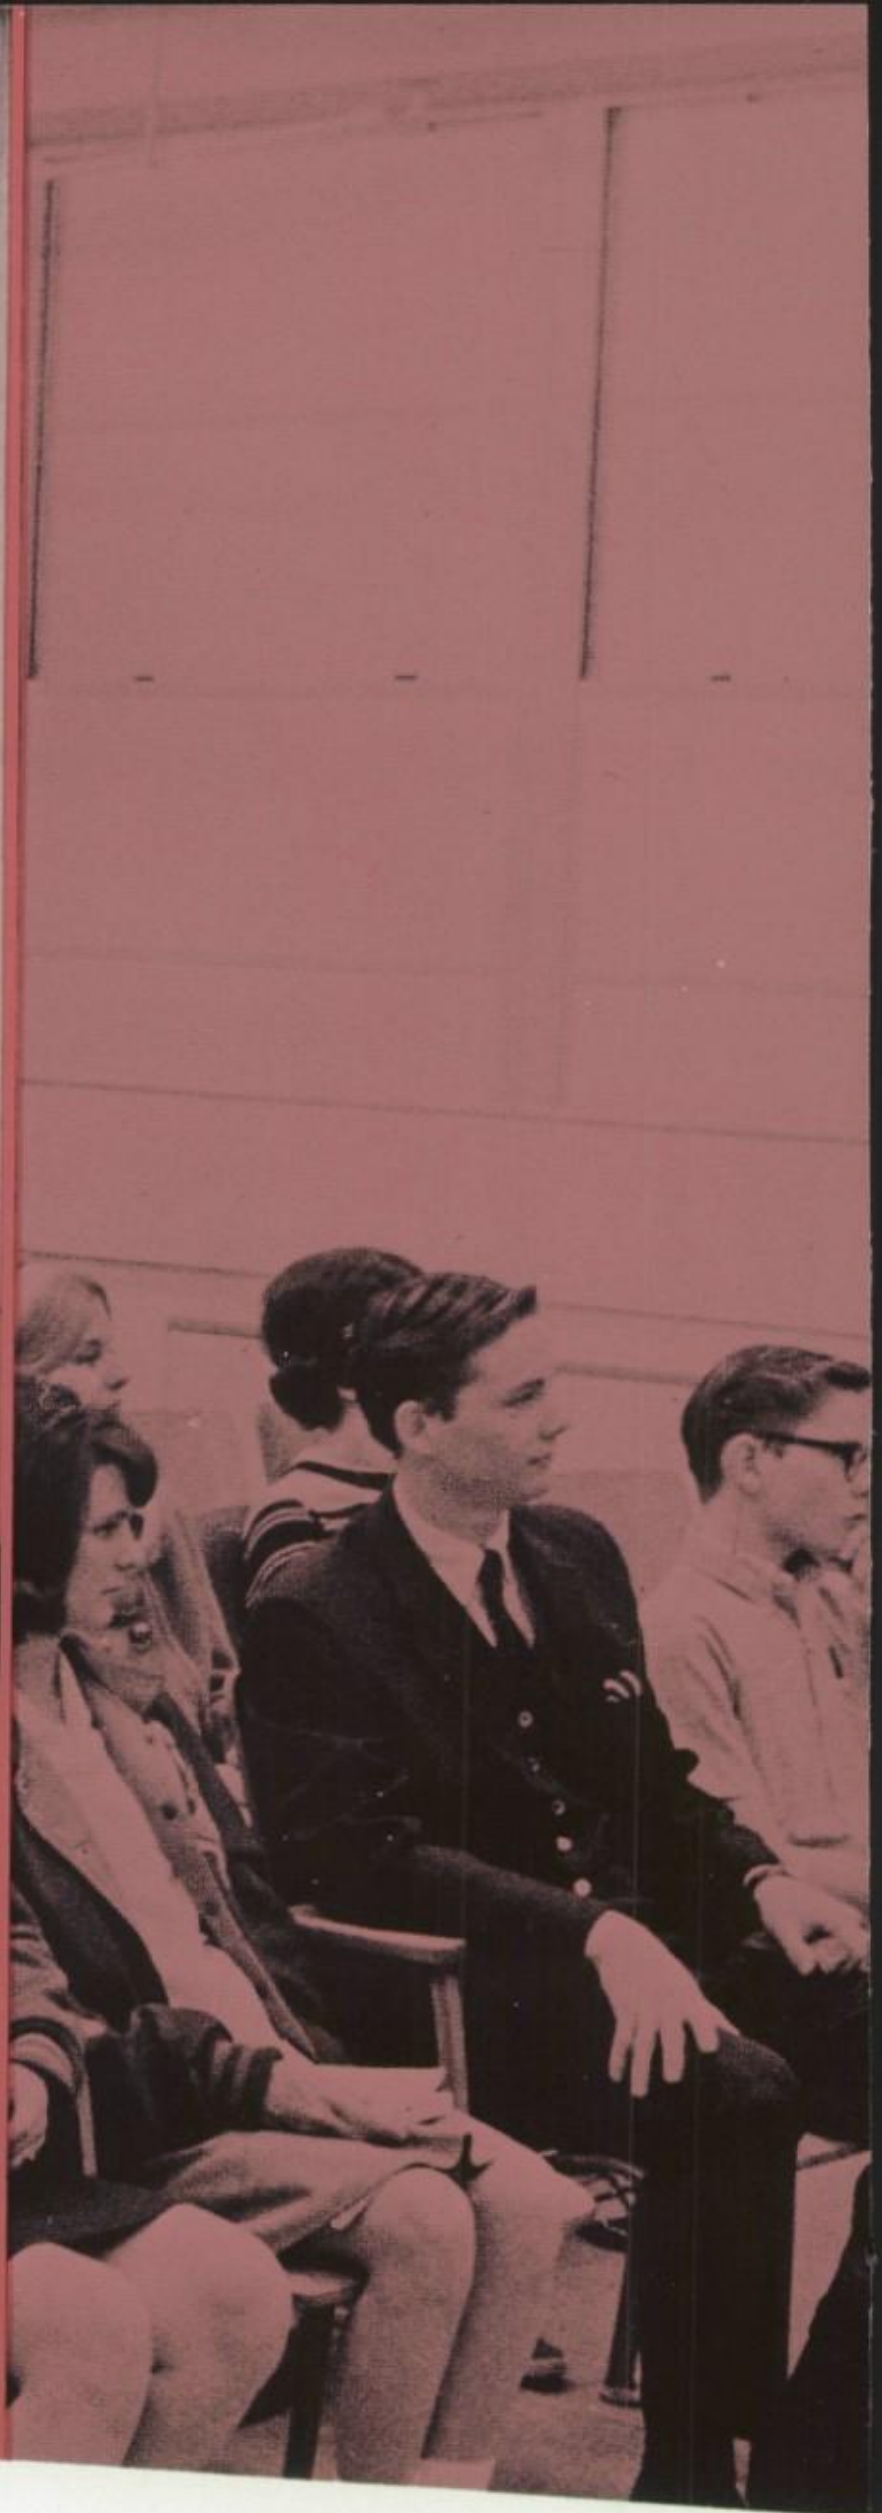

LARRY MOORE

Football
Science Club
Concert Choir
"Cinderella"

Whether it be performing as a football player out on the field or singing the lead in the musical "Cinderella" Larry's abilities show a marked willingness for hard work. His achievements surely must be a tribute to his sincere loyalty.

In gratitude of his efforts, we recognize Larry Moore.

CARTER SPIRIT STILL HIGH

Spirit, the backbone of a school. Carter students have proven this in the second year of our school's existence. The first students have started a tradition. A tradition needed by schools, but only a few have real spirit. Future Carter students will have the tradition of spirit.

And I mean big.

FIRST FOOTBALL

November 2, 1967 was a most exciting night in the lives of four girls. Those girls were Anne Kheul, Mimi McCauley, Pam Howard, and Diane Temples. The night was the night of the Football Queen Coronation.

Anne Khuel was crowned queen. Her court consisted of Mimi McCauley, Senior Princess, Pam Howard, Junior Princess, and Diane Temple, Sophomore Princess.

Anne Kheul just after coronation crowning.

Anne and her escort Randall Wallace.

QUEEN CROWNED

Anne Khuel's escort was Randall Wallace. Charles Nix escorted Mimi McCauley. Pam Howard was escorted by Don Blackwood and Diane Temples chose Rocky Saldana to escort her. Each of these boys are members of the football team.

Anne and her court were chosen by the student body. The following qualifications were considered in the selection of the queen and her court. Beauty, poise, and personality. The Football Coronation has become a tradition for Carter.

The Cowboys never broke stride as we waded through the North Dallas as Bulldogs 28-6. The Bulldogs held North Dallas to a minus 28 yards rushing, Carter's defense left the Bulldogs struggling around mid-field for most of the game. Wiggins was the first to light up the scoreboard on a fourth and one. Acuff kicked the extra point. The second scoring drive took place on the Bulldog 37, and 11 plays later Janosko tagged Blackwood from the 15 with a TD pass. With 1:39 left in the first half, the Pokes marked the third touchdown when Wiggins plunged in from the 2. Janosko pegged Worley for the 2 point conversion. Janosko iced the victory when he sneaked over the first play of the fourth quarter. Acuff converted the point. The Dogs waited until the last play of the game to throw an offensive threat with a touchdown.

Richardson Rips Cowboys . . . The winning spell was broken when defeat hovered over the team this Friday night. The cowboys slogged their way through mud and water to a 20-0 loss to the Richardson Eagles. All the scoring took place in the first half. As the Cowboy defense held the Eagle line during the second half. This tremendous effort was led by Steve Anderson and Harry Laird.

TIM CAPELLI, 2 yrs.
Outstanding Offen. Lineman 1967

STEVE STARNES, 2 yrs.

It was not a night for football. The field turned into a muddy quagmire from the late afternoon rains. Everywhere you looked there was mud and water. After the first series of plays, the numbers on our uniforms could not be read.

The mud proved to be a hindrance to the cowboys as the game was bogged 20-0 in favor of the Sunset Bisons. We could not capitalize on chances given to us. Coach Couch praised the boys for their commendable to defeat the Bisons by saying, "I thought our boys did a fine job." Outstanding players for the Bison game were Harry Laird, Alan Ladd, Charlie Nix, and Dennis Ladd.

PARIS STOPS CARTER 27-6

Carter battled Paris in a rough defensive contest until the hometown Wildcats broke loose in the final period to score a win, 27-6. Paris jumped to an early lead on a 5 yard touchdown run. Cowboy Stanley Murray pounced on a Cat fumble and Cowboys drove to the Paris 15 yard line before a pass interception by a Paris guard stopped them. The Cowboys scored on their first possession in the second half, tying the score on a 54 yard pass play from quarterback Ron Townsend to end Don Blackwood. Tackles Harry Laird and Larry Worley were standouts in the Carter defensive wall. The final three Paris touchdowns were made by two runs and a pass; all PATS were good.

LEOPARDS NUDGE CARTER 19-18

Ladd plows through the line.

The Cowboys, still smarting from last week's loss, met the Adamson Leopards to see them salvage a 19-18 victory at Sprague Field. The cowboys first scored when Ronnie Townsend hit Don Blackwood on a 21-yard scoring toss to cap a long drive. Adamson took the next turn and lifted the score 7-6. In the third quarter the Leopards and Cowboys matched wits as the score became 13-12 due to a pass lobbed from Janosko to Steve Starnes and a 33 yard scamper. Adamson followed suit making the score 19-12. Carter fought back late, driving 60 yards in 12 plays Janosko blasted in from the 5, with the all important conversion needed. As Janosko rolled out to pass for the extra points, he was dropped by a host of Leopards. The final siren ended the game in the favor of Adamson. All who attended the game saw a Cowboy Team play, never losing spirit. Leading the Carter offense were Ken Janosko, Ron Townsend, and Don Blackwood. Adamson may have won in respect to the scoreboard, but the Cowboys were the real victors!

KENNETH JANOSKO

In a game prediction the Wildcats were given a three touchdown favor. The Cowboys didn't believe what everyone was saying and proved it as a powerful defense shut-out the Wildcats 13-0. Alan Ladd, Tim Cappelli and Charles Nix were the impressive front three. Halfback Dennis Ladd registered the first six points, quarterback Ken Janosko kicked the extra point, and Danny Carter accounted the other six. Ladd's score came in when he took a handoff, cut over left tacklers. Thrill piled on when Danny Carter ran off six in the fourth quarter. With the ball on the WW 14, Carter took the handoff, went over left guard, slowed to a walk for some nine yards, then dashed over the double line making the score 13-0 over the wilting Cats.

Unknown cowboy has an open field.

DANNY CARTER
2 years, Letterman

Washington had the pleasure of scoring first, but Carter had the advantage of scoring last and securing a 21-20 victory over the Bulldogs. Carter moved 31 yards in six plays late in the third quarter for the winning touchdown and extra point. Ken Janosko scored from 9 yards out and kicked the deciding point. Janosko scored again in the second on a keeper and converted. Carter scored in the third when Bob Clark carried from the two, Janosko kept up the habit by kicking the final point for a 21-20 score.

It was the same old story as Carter met arch rival Kimball. Kimball started off with Poe blocking a punt for a safety and scored in the second quarter to make it 9-0. Then Janosko kicked a 37 yd. field goal. Kimball came back to stretch the margin to 15-3. On the Cowboys' first possession of the ball in the second half Janosko hit Blackwood for a 57 yd. T.D. Carter's season ended with a 6-6 with Roosevelt, who was a 2 touch-down favorite. It was a very muddy night, which inflicted both teams offenses. Carter started out early by scoring on a 34 yard TD pass to Steve Starnes from Ken Janosko. Don Mitchel for Roosevelt returned a punt for 82 yards. Cecil Partee then decided to go to the air, and hit Don Armstead with 3 passes for 19, 19 and 37 yards. With only 18 seconds left to play Starnes intercepted a pass.

So . . . What's different about PIZZA?

Our recipe for one thing! Flaky tender crust and plump California tomatoes plus our own . . . special blend of 26 of the world's finest spices and imported herbs. Then we crown all of this with a sunny golden blanket of aged mozzarella cheese and garnish with your choice of olives, mushrooms, pepperoni, hamburger sausage, jalapenos, or anchovies.

In Memory of . . .

Mickey Pearson

Mickey exemplified the school's slogan, "Prove You Care" in a manner yet unsurpassed.

Alma Mater

Hail Carter High, Cheer for the red and blue
Our hearts lift up for Cowboys who are always brave and true.

Hail Carter High, Spirit of Friendship;
We proudly sing our hymn to you,
Oh Carter High.
